Here at the Sunol Water Temple, we honor the watershed and the water that flows through it.
At this unique confluence of waterways, we also see the confluence of people and nature, and we are reminded of the significance of water in sustaining both.